

Medieval Graffiti -

The Lost Voices of England's Churches

A Talk by Matthew Champion

(England's Leading Specialist on Medieval Graffiti)

St Neots Local History Society

<http://stneotshs.org.uk/>

If walls could speak... they would reveal how they hold the key to real life stories, of medieval men and women lost in the shadows of history.

Hear about the medieval beasts, knights battling unseen dragons, ships sailing across lime-washed oceans and the demons who stalk the walls of our churches.

For centuries these carved writings and artworks have lain largely unnoticed ... until Matthew started his nationwide survey.

Venue: Eynesbury Junior School

Date: Friday 1st June

Time: 7:30 p.m.

Members: Free

Non-members: £3.00