

The Cromwell Lecture Series 2018

A programme of talks on subjects from the Life and Times of Oliver Cromwell

All proceeds go to towards the running of the Museum

'The life and times of a Civil War Heroine'

The remarkable story of Lady Ann Fanshawe & her experiences in Civil War Oxford, as set out in her 'Receipt Book'.

A talk by historian and broadcaster Lucy Moore

Wednesday 21st November 2018 at 7.30pm

Huntingdon Town Hall

'Portraits of the English Civil War'

The remarkable paintings produced in this period (some in the Cromwell Museum) the artists and stories behind them.

A talk by art historian and author Angus Haldane

Wednesday 28th November 2018 at 7.30pm

Huntingdon All Saints Church

'Oliver Cromwell: Myth and Reality'

Was Cromwell really a dour killjoy who cancelled Christmas? This talk looks at the popular perception and reality of him.

A talk by historian Professor John Morrill

Wednesday 5th December 2018 at 7.30pm

Huntingdon Town Hall

Tickets: £10 per talk (£8 students). Combined ticket for three talks £25 (£20 students).

Discounts for Friends of the Museum/Museum Volunteers

Ticket prices include light refreshments. Books will be on sale at each event and speakers will be signing after the talk.

Tickets available from the Cromwell Museum or visit www.cromwellmuseum.org for online booking