2. Minutes of the last Meeting:

The Minutes of the 2017 AGM were signed as correct by the Chairman, Philip Saunders.

3. Matters arising – not otherwise on the Agenda: None

4. Membership Secretary's Report

Jean Burbidge reported that due to the requirements of the new Data Protection Regulations, membership correspondence and subscriptions were now being handled by the Treasurer, David Smith. Jean thanked David for taking on this extra workload – and also thanked Val Halliday for organising the Gift Aid return on subscriptions. Jean saw her role now as a 'Welcome Secretary'.

The Society has 242 Facebook followers – Jean recommended Facebook as a very positive and easy way of keeping the Society in touch with its members.

5. Excursions Report

David Cozens gave a report, attached, on the successful and very enjoyable summer excursions. Overall these were well supported and had been financially successful.

Rosemary Smith spoke about the May weekend; its inclusive cost for 4 days is about £350 per person which everyone felt was good value. Philip thanked Rosemary for organising the 2018 trip (just completed) and for starting to plan 2019.

6. Treasurer's Report

David Smith presented his report, as attached, and showed the continuing sound financial position of the Society. Kathy Ray was the independent auditor of the annual accounts; these had been signed by the Chairman and full copies were made available to members.

There were no questions to the accounts, David was thanked for his work over the year.

7. The Goodliff Bequest

The latest edition of the Almanack contains a list of this year's Goodliff Awards. Kate Hadley reported that the standard of applications had been very good – and the sub-committee had been particularly pleased to give an award to a joint application from the Norris and Cromwell Museums for work with schoolchildren. Kate was looking forward to the Awards evening in November when the recipients will give an outline of their projects to the Society.

8. Outgoing Editor's Report

Records of Huntingdonshire had been published at the end of 2017 and distributed in January. Philip said he was relieved 'to have got there in the end!' and comments showed it was well-received. Richard Halliday is taking over as the new editor. He welcomes any potential items for the next edition which he hopes to publish at the end of the year.

9. The Chairman's Address

Philip spoke of 2 projects with which the Society is currently involved. The Huntingdon History Festival is from 30th June to the end of July this year. The Society are helping with the organisation of this, and several committee members are participating in giving lectures, guided walks and helping with displays. The Society feels that this is a good opportunity to engage with the wider public. The organisers hope that future Festivals will have a wider remit beyond Huntingdon to the old County.

Huntingdon Town Council are preparing an application to the Heritage Lottery Fund to develop a Heritage Centre in the Town Hall. The Society supports this venture and Kate Hadley is a member of the Working Party.

All the Officers, except Bridget Flanagan who was standing down from the committee, and Jean Burbidge, whose role was changing, were willing to continue to serve for 2018-19. Caroline Clifford proposed and Stuart Orme seconded that they be re-elected en bloc. This was agreed.

With the business of the AGM concluded, there was a stimulating presentation by Liz Davies, Curator of St Neots Museum on the Kimbolton Hoard of Iron Age coins.

Members then socialised and enjoyed light refreshments organised by David and Rosemary Smith.

The President's Lecture by Dr Simon Thurley and the presentation of this year's Goodliff Awards will take place on Wednesday 17th July 2019 at Huntingdon Town Hall.

The 2019 Goodliff Awards are being presented at the Society's President's Lecture, which this year is taking place during the Huntingdonshire History Festival.
