Tom Grimes

President, Spalding Gentlemen's Society

300 Years of the Spalding Gentlemen's Society

The SGS, founded by Maurice Johnson (left) is the oldest provincial antiquarian – or local history – society.

It has wonderful collections, that could be the envy of many university libraries or museums. Why Spalding? Tom Grimes, latest in a long succession of SGS presidents, will enlighten us and take us through the society's history.

7.30 p.m., Wednesday 12th March 2020

Methodist Church, High Street, Huntingdon
