John Howland of Fenstanton, The Mayflower and the Great Migration: making the DVD

400 years ago, John Howland of Fenstanton was one of those Pilgrim Fathers who set sail on the Mayflower for the New World.

Our speaker has been producing films to show the country he left and why, and his talk will be illustrated with extracts.

7.30 p.m., Wednesday 12th February

Methodist Church, High Street, Huntingdon

(Free evening parking nearby at Malthouse Close, PE29 3AR)
